

Teacher Notes - Practise oral segmenting and blending - Simon Says Action Game

Ask children to perform a number of different actions by sound talking. E.g. Simon Says j / u / m / p. children need to blend the sounds together to make the word and perform the action.

Let's play Simon Says

Teacher Notes - Revist and Review

Practise previous learnt letter sounds

Can you remember this letter sound?

S

Teacher Notes - Revist and Review

Practise previous learnt letter sounds

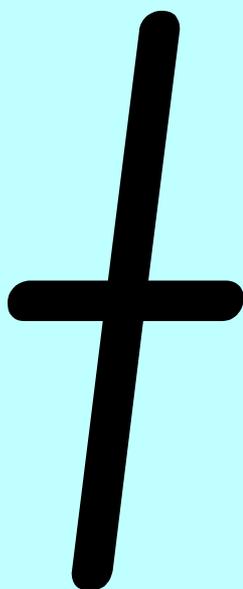

Can you remember this letter sound?

Teacher Notes - Revist and Review

Practise previous learnt letter sounds

Can you remember this letter sound?

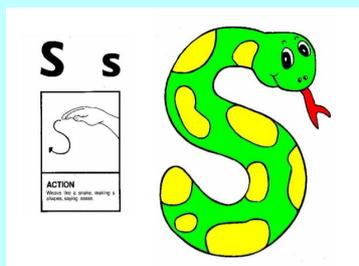

Teacher Notes - Revist and Review

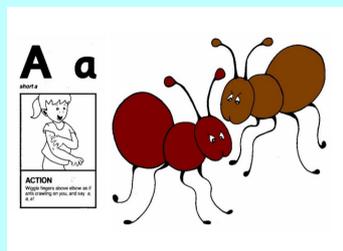

Practise previous learnt letter sounds

Sing the songs and perform actions to consolidate previous learning.

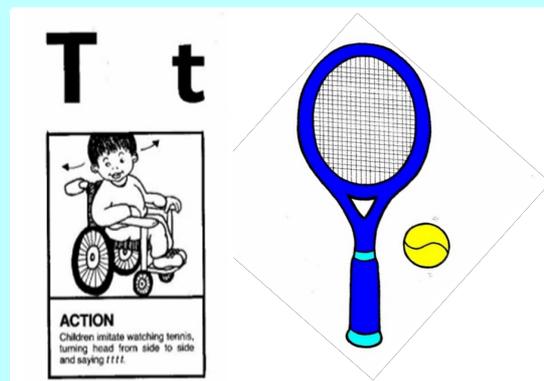

Can you remember the song and action for these letter sound?

Slithering Snake s s s
Slithering Snake s s s
Slithering Snake s s s s is the sound that S makes

Angry Ants a a a
Angry Ants a a a
Angry Ants a a a
a is the sound that A makes

Tennis Tennis t t t
Tennis Tennis t t t
Tennis Tennis t t t
t is the sounds that T makes

Teach New Letter Sound p

What do you notice about these pictures?

538 x 776 - cicis.com

55 - abc.net.au

100 x 600 - originalbagelpoo.com

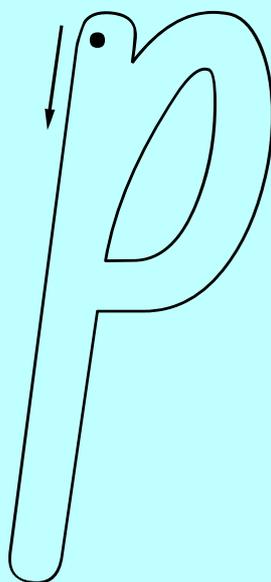

30 x 630 - teenpublic.com

They all begin with the letter...

Teacher Notes: Teach children how to write the letter a - "Down the tennis racket and across its strings."

This is what the letter looks like...

Can you draw the letter in the air?

Can you draw a capital letter?

Can you draw a lowercase letter?

Now lets learn a song and action about the letter to help us remember it.

Sing the song to the tune of Skip to my Lou

Pinky Pig p p p

Pinky Pig p p p

Pinky Pig p p p

p is the sound that P makes

Teacher Notes: Apply

Let's look at the letters we have learnt so far.

Can you remember their letter sounds?

Can you remember their letter name?

s a t

p

Can you make any words using these new letters?

Teacher Notes: Apply
Quick say and write - Point at the letters and ask the children to say the letter sound and name. Can they draw in the air? Can they write on whiteboards?

